Being Frank

My Time With Frank Zappa

By Nigey Lennon

"...irreplaceable, spiky and musically literate...Lennon's previous books were on Mark Twain and Alfred Jarry, which indicates the kind of cultural perspective required to get a grip on Zappa: something brighter than rock-journo pedantry." -- Ben Watson, author of Frank Zappa: The Negative Dialectics of Poodle Play

Still the best up-close-and-personal account of legendary iconoclast Frank Zappa, who died in 1993. Lennon maintained a personal and professional relationship with Zappa during his most creative period and invests her recollections with considerable musical and emotional insight. With:

- New material by the author
- Preface by David Walley (No Commercial Potential: The Saga of Frank Zappa and the Mothers of Invention)
- Foreword by Greg Russo (Cosmik Debris: The Collected History and Improvisations of Frank Zappa)
- Introduction by Candy Zappa
- Released jointly with Patrice "Candy" Zappa's My Brother Was A Mother: A Family Album

Nigey Lennon is a composer, performer, and producer and the author of seven published books including The Sagebrush Bohemian: Mark Twain in California (Paragon House, 1990) and Alfred Jarry: The Man With The Axe (Last Gasp, 1984). She lives in New York.

Frank's family history

My Brother Was A Mother

A Zappa Family Album

By Patrice "Candy" Zappa

*"...this is the missing piece of the puzzle that you find years later in the back of the closet under all the mothballs, mouse droppings and other stuff that sticks to the floor...there's lots of stuff here I didn't know...with this book, you are there. And we thought we knew everything about Frank Zappa! Hah!" ---from the Introduction by Greg Russo, author of *Cosmik Debris: The Collected History and Improvisations of Frank Zappa

In her own words, Frank Zappa's younger sister Patrice shares her memories of growing up with the iconoclastic guitarist, composer, and social observer.

With characteristic humor, she throws open a long-locked door to reveal the family history Frank kept secret. With

- 60+ rare photographs from the Zappa family album
- Introduction by Greg Russo
- Preface by Nigey Lennon (Being Frank: My Time With Frank Zappa)

Patrice "Candy" Zappa has performed and recorded with numerous groups including the Ed Palermo Big Band, Lennon/Tabacco/Zappa, and as part of the duo Zappa and Porter (with Nolan Porter). She lives in the San Fernando Valley.

Hope in a Dark Time

Reflections of Humanity's Future

Edited by David Krieger

"This book is an invitation to hope and to action. It is an invitation to set aside the obstacles to action, to choose peace and to wage peace. It is an invitation to help shape humanity's future." —David Krieger

Five extraordinary visionaries explore their hopes for humanity in timely essays about the importance of individual action:

- Barbara Marx Hubbard
- Joanna Macy
- Queen Noor al Hussein
- Frank K. Kelly
- David Kreiger

As humanity faces enormous challenges, many question whether there are any rational reasons for hope--but hope may be wildly irrational. Rational or not, hope must underpin action in these critical times.

David Krieger is the founder of the Nuclear Age Peace Foundation, president since 1982. He has lectured in the U.S., Europe, and Asia and has received numerous awards and honors for his work. He is a graduate of Occidental College, and holds MA and Ph.D. degrees in political science from the University of Hawaii as well as a J.D. from the Santa Barbara College of Law. Dr. Krieger serves as a judge pro tem and arbitrator for the Santa Barbara Superior Court.

Americans in Paris

Great Short Stories of the City of Light

Edited by Steven Gilbar

"There is nothing so enlivening to literature as an account of beloved places, as we see in this wonderful collection of Americans-in-Paris stories by 20th-century American writers." - Diane Johnson, author of Le Mariage and Le Divorce

Fourteen short stories set in Paris by famous American authors, for readers who wish they were in Paris this minute.

The principal characters are Americans—students, scholars, expatriates—on missions, business, vacation as they wander a Paris of bistros and bars, clubs and cafés, trying to puzzle out its mysteries. Authors include:

- Alice Adams
- Evan S. Connell
- Paul Theroux

With a Foreword by Diane Johnson (Le Mariage & Le Divorce), the title institutes a series with the planned sequels Americans in Italy and Americans in Mexico.

Steven Gilbar has written and edited numerous books, collections and anthologies. His short story anthologies of place are California Shorts, L.A. Shorts, and Santa Barbara Stories. He lives in Santa Barbara with his wife, Inge.
